MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

SUBJECT : Family Visits to Headquarters Building

1. This memorandum is for your information only.
2. You will recall that a plan was developed in May to allow employees to bring their families to the Headquarters Building. At that time, Mr. Helms felt that the climate was not good for such a program and directed that the proposal be deferred until later in the summer.
3. In view of recent developments<sup>x</sup>, we believe that it would be even less appropriate to have an "open house." We propose, therefore, not to reopen this proposal until next year unless you indicate otherwise.
